Why is there 'Years 1 to 4' training and 'Years 1 to 6' training?

The main difference between the years 1 to 4 approach and the 'application into writing' approach in years 5 and 6 is that all discussions are centred on the writing outcome. Discussions are structured through the lenses of 'audience', 'purpose' and intended 'effect' and how the application of different grammatical aspects affects these.

Some schools choose to implement the Y1 to Y4 approach to begin with, introducing the lesson slides and cards to the children. Year 5 and 6 training is then introduced later in the academic year. Please contact admin@leadtshub.co.uk if you would like further information.

Please contact admin@leadtshub.co.uk if you would like any further information about this Active approach, or for details of further Active approaches we can offer. Laura will be happy to support you in the school's next steps.
